2 The farmer not having been regular in the payment of the monthly kist which was Rs 20-4-0 inclusive of Local cess, a large sum fell in — arrears in May 1897, and the two months' rental deposited by him — was then credited towards this — or fear of loss to Government and at the end of the official year, it was found that a sum of Rs 291-3-6 in clusive of interest was still due from the farmer

3 Coercive measures were adopted for the recovery of this sum, and Rs 24-10-0 were realized by the sale of the defaulter's movable which was next proceeded against, was knocked down to Government for Rs 30-4-0 in the auction, it having been deemed advisable to purchase it for Government,
